PROBATION

The defendant is hereby sentenced to probation for a term of 2 years as to Count 1 of the Indictment.

Other than exceptions noted on the record at sentencing, the Court adopts the presentence report in its current form, including the suggested terms and conditions of probation and the explanations and justifications therefor.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

The following conditions are authorized pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3563(a):

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.\

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of being sentenced to probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Court, not to exceed 52 tests in one year.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall pay any financial penalties imposed which are due and payable immediately. If the defendant is unable to pay them immediately, any amount remaining unpaid will become a condition of probation and be paid in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of the judgment based on the defendant's ability to pay.

The defendant shall make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664; and pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013.

The defendant will notify the court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONDITIONS

The following conditions of probation are administrative and applicable whenever probation is imposed, regardless of the substantive conditions that may also be imposed. These conditions are basic requirements essential to probation.

The defendant shall not knowingly possess a firearm, ammunition, or destructive device. The defendant shall not knowingly possess a dangerous weapon unless approved by the Court.

The defendant shall not knowingly leave the judicial district without the permission of the Court or the probation officer.

DEFENDANT: LEONARD JOHNSON A/K/A LEONARD C. JOHNSON III
CASE NUMBER: 19-CR-30139-NJR-01

The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a reasonable manner and frequency directed by the Court or probation officer.

The defendant shall respond to all inquiries of the probation officer and follow all reasonable instructions of the probation officer.

The defendant shall notify the probation officer prior to an expected change, or within seventy-two hours after an unexpected change, in residence or employment.

The defendant shall not knowingly meet, communicate, or otherwise interact with a person whom the defendant knows to be engaged, or planning to be engaged, in criminal activity.

The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit the defendant at a reasonable time at home or at any other reasonable location and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.

The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Pursuant to the factors in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) and 18 U.S.C. § 3563(b), the following special conditions are ordered. While the Court imposes special conditions, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3603(10), the probation officer shall perform any other duty that the Court may designate. The Court directs the probation officer to administer, monitor, and use all suitable methods consistent with the conditions specified by the Court and 18 U.S.C. § 3603 to aid persons on probation/supervised release. Although the probation officer administers the special conditions, final authority over all conditions rests with the Court.

Condition: The defendant shall perform 100 hours of community service as directed by the probation officer.

Condition Explanation: The defendant shall perform community service hours through a non for profit or tax supported agency. Community service may also consist of the Court ordering the offender to provide a service on their own (e.g. talking to a classroom of kids at a school about drug use). The defendant is required to provide verification of community service hours completed to the Court and/or probation officer. The Court directs the probation officer to approve the community service placement, monitor the defendant's progress, and verify the completion of hours.

Condition: While any financial penalties are outstanding, the defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the Court or probation officer.

Condition Explanation: While there is an outstanding fine, restitution, or special assessment obligation, the defendant is not to take on additional debt through purchases made with existing lines of credit (e.g. purchases made with any existing credit card, increasing an existing home equity line of credit, refinancing an existing mortgage, etc.) without the approval of the Court or probation officer. The defendant is not to apply for or open any new lines of credit (e.g. credit card, automobile or home loan, cellular telephone contracts, etc.) without the approval of the Court or probation officer.

Condition: While any financial penalties are outstanding, the defendant shall not open additional checking, savings, or money market accounts, or acquire any stocks, bonds, or other financial account instruments without the approval of the Court or probation officer.

Condition Explanation: While there is an outstanding fine, restitution, or special assessment obligation, the defendant shall not open any new checking, savings, or money market accounts, or acquire any new stocks, bonds, or other financial account instruments, regardless of the amount, without the approval of the Court or probation officer.

Condition: While any financial penalties are outstanding, the defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

Condition Explanation: While there is an outstanding fine, restitution, or special assessment obligation, the defendant is required to provide any financial information (e.g. banks statements, income verification, tax returns, verification of assets, expenses, and liabilities, etc.) to the probation officer and/or the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office as requested.

Condition: While any financial penalties are outstanding, the defendant shall apply some or all monies received, to be determined by the Court, from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to any outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the receipt of any indicated monies.

Condition Explanation: While there is an outstanding fine, restitution, or special assessment obligation, the defendant shall disclose to the probation officer any monies received through income tax refunds (state or federal), lottery winnings, judgments (e.g. civil suits), and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains (e.g. gambling winnings, inheritance, life insurance benefits, etc.) regardless of the amount. The Court will determine the appropriate amount to be applied to any outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation, after considering the defendant's basic needs. The defendant shall notify the probation officer of the receipt of any of the above noted monies within 72 hours.

Condition: The defendant shall obtain prior approval from the Court or probation officer before entering into any self-employment.

Condition Explanation: Self-employment is not precluded but must be approved by the Court or probation officer.
